

This allocation will enhance the Amateur Radio effectiveness in times of seasonal propagation fluxes and abnormal solar activity. Emergency traffic often has to reliably communicate outside of the effected area, and this is often to the surrounding states and the 5Mhz allocation should improve this. With the known effectiveness of digital modes (PSK31, PACTOR, etc) I would also favor a “set-aside window” for those modes.

John Wagner – W8JJW